About the Online Fluency Program

Oral reading fluency plays a crucial role in developing children's ability to read a text accurately, quickly, and with expression. Research indicates that oral reading fluency is correlated with students' cognitive understanding of the text. Fluent reading leads to more success with writing, better vocabulary skills, and a greater understanding of what is being read.

In an industry first, an innovative online fluency improvement program will be accessible to the users of this Lumos tedBook. Parents and educators can easily unlock this access by following the steps provided in the signup section.

The Lumos fluency improvement program is an elearning solution that creates an opportunity for the students to:

1. Cold Reading: Children can Read, Record, and Listen to the story in their voice.
2. Vocabulary Practice: Lumos FlashCube and Quiz for Word Mastery.
3. Teacher Modeling: Read-Along with an expert storyteller while paying attention to the highlighted text.
4. Hot Reading: Children can Re-Read, Record, and Listen to the Story in their voice.

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

Once upon a time there were three Billy Goats, who were to go up to the hillside to make themselves fat, and the family name of the goats was "Gruff."

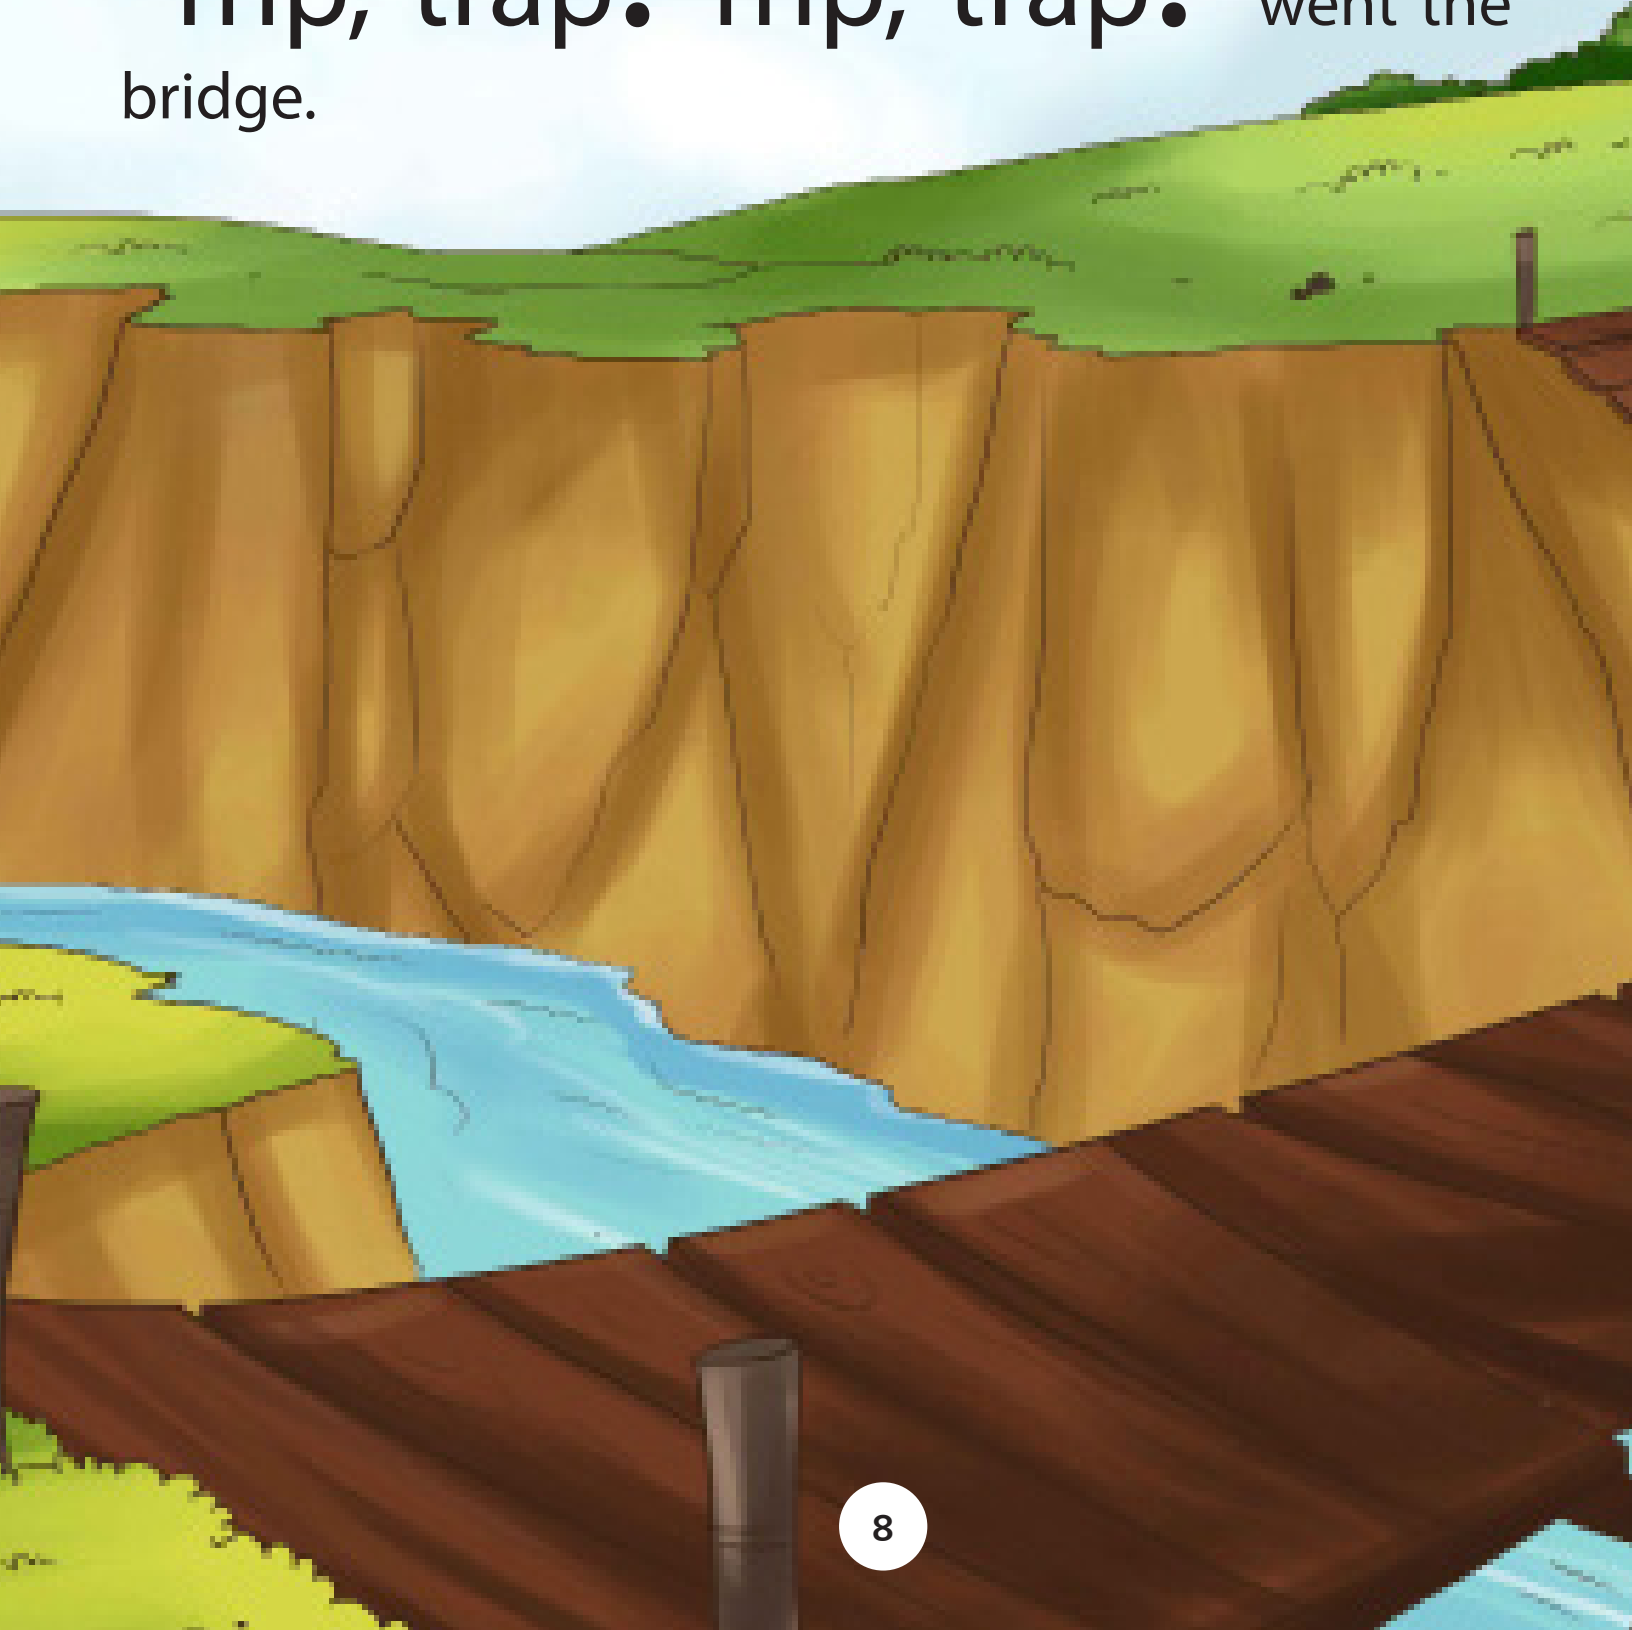

On the way up was a bridge, over a river which they had to cross, and under the bridge lived a great ugly Troll with eyes as big as saucers, and a nose as long as a poker.

First of all came the youngest Billy Goat Gruff to cross the bridge.

“Trip, trap! Trip, trap!” went the bridge.

The background of the page is a large, grey, textured face of a troll, composed of many irregular, rounded shapes that resemble stones or boulders. The troll's face is looking downwards. At the bottom of the page, there is a horizontal band of bright blue, wavy lines representing a stream or a path. The overall style is simple and illustrative.

“Who’s that tripping over my bridge?”
roared the Troll.
