Passage 1

The Tale of Peter Rabbit

Step 1: Read the passage given below

Reading Instructions

- Read like you talk. Do not read too fast or too slow.
- Read the words correctly.
- Take brief pauses at punctuation marks like commas and periods.
- Change your voice at a question mark or to show strong feelings at an exclamation mark.
- Read words in small phrases.

Once upon a time, there were four little Rabbits, and their names were - Flopsy, Mopsy, Cotton-tail, and Peter. They lived with their Mother in a sand-bank, underneath the root of a very big fir-tree.

'Now, my dears,' said old Mrs. Rabbit one morning, 'you may go into the fields or down the lane, but don't go into Mr. McGregor's garden. Your father had an accident there; he was put in a pie by Mrs. McGregor.'

Be good little bunnies, 'Now run along, and don't get into mischief. I am going out.' Then old Mrs. Rabbit took a basket and her umbrella and went through the wood to the baker's. She bought a loaf of brown bread and five currant buns.

Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail, who were good little bunnies, went down the lane to gather blackberries: But Peter, who was very naughty, ran straight away to Mr. McGregor's garden, and squeezed under the gate!

First, he ate some lettuces and some French beans, and then he ate some radishes; Peter ate too much. And then, feeling rather sick, he went to look for some parsley.

But round the end of a cucumber frame, whom should he meet but Mr. McGregor!

McGregor chases Peter. Mr. McGregor was on his hands and knees planting out young cabbages, but he jumped up and ran after Peter, waving a rake and calling out, 'Stop thief!'

Passage 1

Henry Ford

by Carla Gajewskey

Step 1: Read the passage given below

Reading Instructions

- Read like you talk. Do not read too fast or too slow.
- Read the words correctly.
- Take brief pauses at punctuation marks like commas and periods.
- Change your voice at a question mark or to show strong feelings at an exclamation mark.
- Read words in small phrases.

1. Henry Ford was born on a farm in Michigan. He did not like farm work. Henry Ford dreamed of moving to the city. Even at an early age, he was good at building things. He knew he would someday find a job.
2. At age 16, he moved to the city of Detroit, Michigan. He found a job as a machinist. A machinist uses tools and machines to make parts out of metal or wood. This was hard and dangerous work. Many workers got hurt while making parts.
3. Henry Ford tinkered with the gasoline engine. He worked on motors for fun. He used his money for his hobby. Henry Ford put a motor on what looked like a wagon. Later, he worked with Thomas Edison, the inventor of the light bulb. Thomas Edison liked Henry Ford's idea. In 1898, Henry Ford made his second gas car.
4. Henry Ford started out with groups of two or three workers to put the cars together. He knew he needed the best workers he could find. He paid five dollars a day for the best help. His team used parts from other businesses. This made the cars cost a lot of money.
5. He is most famous for the assembly line. Henry Ford made the assembly line better so he could make more cars. In an assembly line, each worker has a job. The car moves in a line to be put together.
6. It was all downhill after that. Ford's company grew rapidly. Soon his company was not just in Michigan but all over the world.

Name: _____
